

30 Years of Success: The Monitor Station Network

The Monitor Station Network (MSN) celebrated its 30th anniversary in December 2015. MSN data has played an integral role in improving and maintaining the quality of the Global Positioning System (GPS) and supports the positioning and navigation needs of GPS users worldwide. ARL:UT's Space and Geophysics Laboratory has designed, implemented, and provided engineering support for the system since the beginning.

